SZENE: National Journal

The teachers’ journal SZENE is produced and published by the Association of German Teachers of Victoria Inc. A0024716J in cooperation with the Network of Australian Teachers of German (NATG).

SZENE documents the presence of German in schools and facilitates the sharing of ideas between teachers across Australia. The Committee of the AGTV appoints an Editor, and oversees and pays for all costs of production. Some funding has been gratefully received to support SZENE from the Goethe-Institut since the first issue was produced in 1980.

The AGTV currently publishes two issues of SZENE, which are planned to be posted in April /May and November.

Contributions to SZENE

Reports and teaching ideas can be forwarded at any time. Advertising space is also for sale.

Contact the AGTV Editor: Maja Herr szene@agtv.vic.edu.au

Subscriptions to SZENE

Membership of the Victorian (AGTV) and South Australian (SAGTA) teacher associations receive a complimentary subscription to SZENE for the calendar year. NB: An Australian Subscription does not entitle the subscriber to benefits of individual or school membership of the AGTV.

An Australian Subscription to SZENE is $35.00 for a 12 month subscription from the time payment is received. It is offered to any person or institution wishing to subscribe to SZENE who are not members of SAGTA or the AGTV.
Please note that only the required numbers are printed to post to current members/subscribers at the time of each publication. No back copies are available.

International subscriptions available on request and will incur an additional cost for postage.

How to subscribe to SZENE

Online subscriptions are through the AGTV’s secure online member management system. Renewal reminders are automatically sent to the email registered on the system.

Find further information about how to subscribe along with lists of content and links from past issues on the AGTV public website via this link National Journal SZENE.

Please direct any questions about subscriptions to the AGTV: secretary@agtv.vic.edu.au